

Task 1.

A. Fill in the table according to the characteristic pain syndrome of the most common diseases of the digestive system:

	Chronic atrophic gastritis	Chronic non-atrophic gastritis associated with H. pylori	Gastric ulcer	Duodenal ulcer	Chronic pancreatitis
Pain localization
In relation to food intake
Type of the pain
Factors that reduces the pain syndrome
Vomiting at the apex of the pain
Pain relief after vomiting

B. Fill in the table according to the characteristics syndromes of gastric and intestinal dyspepsia of the most common diseases of the digestive system:

	Chronic atrophic gastritis	Chronic non-atrophic gastritis associated with H. pylori	Gastric ulcer	Duodenal ulcer	Chronic pancreatitis
Heartburn
Regurgitation with acid
Foul-smelling eructation (rotten eggs) or with air
Early satiety
Nausea
Vomiting
Flatulence
Diarrhea
Constipation					