

Question for self-control

1. What are the types of traumatic skin damage when the responsible self-medication is acceptable.
2. List the "threatening" symptoms for skin microtraumas.
3. Describe the algorithm of pharmaceutical care in case of skin microtraumas.
4. Give a definition of the concepts of "burn", "frostbite." What are the symptoms of burns and frostbite that are considered "threatening"?
5. List the groups of drugs for the burns and frostbite treatment . What are the requirements for their rational use?
6. What are the skin lesions of infectious etiology when the responsible self-medication is acceptable.
7. List the "threatening" symptoms for herpes lips, acne, and mycoses.
8. Describe the algorithm of pharmaceutical care for herpes infections.
9. List the groups of drugs for the treatment of acne. What are the requirements for their rational use?
10. List the events to prevent the scabies and head lice.
11. Describe the algorithm of pharmaceutical care for scabies.
12. Describe the algorithm of pharmaceutical care for pediculosis.
13. List the groups of drugs for the treatment of scabies, head lice. What are the requirements for their rational use?
14. List the ways for seborrhea treatment .