

Questions for self-control

1. What are the main complaints of patients with pathology of the gastrointestinal tract?
2. What are the specific syndromes of the gastrointestinal tract diseases ?
3. Define the concept of "digestive insufficiency (maldigestion) and absorption (malabsorption) syndrome."
4. What are the laboratory and instrumental methods for diagnosing the gastrointestinal tract diseases ?
5. Define the concepts of "chronic atrophic gastritis", "chronic non-atrophic gastritis associated with H. pylori", "peptic gastric ulcer and duodenal ulcer", "functional dyspepsia", "chronic pancreatitis", "gastroesophageal reflux disease".
6. Indicate the basic pathogenetic mechanisms of the development of chronic atrophic gastritis.
7. Indicate the important etiological factors in the development of chronic atrophic gastritis.
8. What are the clinical and laboratory criteria for the diagnosis of Helicobacter-associated diseases?
9. What are the specific clinical manifestations of the peptic ulcer with localization in the stomach and duodenum?
10. Describe the pain syndrome of the most common diseases of the digestive system: chronic atrophic gastritis, chronic non-atrophic gastritis associated with H. pylori, stomach ulcers, duodenal ulcers, chronic pancreatitis.